Aren't you holding a grudge for a little too long? 'seol noing tang' was originated from King Sejong's era where a ceremony was held in Mt. Seon Noing Dan.
True, but the spelling was legally changed a long time ago. How can you not know that ?

That cannot be ! Even in my hometown, there was an eatery called "Yurim Seol Noing Tang" !
It must have been a very old place then. Regardless, it has been changed.

You read that? It isn't licensed, so no Korean version is available...
Well, I had to read it in English. My English isn't so good, so I had a hard time.

Now that you mention it, yes.... the place does remind me of the restaurant in "Paper Col"...
Maybe, the owner is an fan of the work.
Hahah..., maybe.

I will give you a month in a month, you must come up with a reason why the man has to love the woman.
And if you can convince me that he has to love her, then yes.
